Visa for Language Course

Note: It has to be distinguished if a Language course is taken as a preparation for your further studies or if it is an 'isolated' language course, that does not serve as a preparation for your studies in Germany. Should it be a preparatory languagecourse then the Information Leaflet for 'Student Visa' applies.

Participation for an Intensiv Language course that does not serve as a preparation for further studies can only be given for a maximum period of one year. An extension of this visa is not possible. Should you decide to further your studies directly after the Language course you will have to return to your home country to apply for a Student Permit. It is not possible to apply for a Student Permit directly in Germany.

For identification purposes and fingerprints Applicants are requested to be personally present at the German Embassy during Visa submission and submit the following documents:

- 2 duly completed Residence Permit Form
- 2 recent biometric Passport-size Fotos (grey/ white background)

in Original with 2 copies:

- valid Passport
- valid Malaysian Permit (if applicable)
- Acceptance Letter from a Language Institut (min 20 hrs/ Week)
- Curriculum Vitae and proof of your academic qualifications
- Motivation Letter in Englisch or in German
- Means of subsistence (please refer to the Information Leaflet 'Means of subsistence')

Visa Fee: 60 € (payable only in Ringgit and cash)

Processing time: 6-8 weeks

The above list is not comprehensive, additional documents may be required. Incomplete applications cannot be processed and you may be asked to return at another time.
Applicants may be called in for an interview.
